Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Future Nurses of America is a high school organization dedicated to supporting and caring for the needs of the less fortunate; and,

WHEREAS, The Future Nurses of America is young people giving of their time and talents to bring joy and happiness to lonely residents of nursing homes and sick patients in hospitals; and,

WHEREAS, These "Future Nurses" also co-sponsor a Halloween Party and an Easter Egg Hunt for the children of the community; and,

WHEREAS, The FNA is even more than caring and doing, it's learning; the students expand their knowledge of the health care field by touring local health care centers, learning important skills such as taking blood pressure, and watching health-related movies; and,

WHEREAS, By volunteering their time at nursing homes and hospitals, FNA members are able to closely investigate the nursing profession for consideration as their life-time career:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 21-27, 1982, as in South Dakota, and respectfully urge all citizens to support our state's health care institutions by encouraging the future of our Future Nurses of America.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE